ELINOR GLYN'S FAMOUS

"THREE WEEKS"

The Book: Translated in the languages of all civilized countries. It has been the most discussed novel of the past decade. It has been harshly criticised as immoral—but has been more widely read by all classes than any other book of the day.

The Picture: "Vivid in interest and gives no offense."—N. Y. Herald.

"One of the best pictures presented here—beautifully staged—excellently acted—sensational—perhaps slightly suggestive, but not coarse or immoral in any sense of the word."—Patrons who have viewed the film.

"Immoral and should not be shown."—Atty. Magoon.
In Honolulu—Cause for action in the Circuit Court and in the Supreme Court of the Territory. It has crowded the Popular—there must be a good reason—not an idle boast or popular prices. SEE IT.

GERMAN WAR-SIDE SHOWN IN FILMS

Opening next Monday for a week of matinees and night performances the feature at the Popular theater will be a series of moving pictures of the European war, showing the German side of the conflict. Heretofore, Honolulu has only been made familiar with what the Allies are doing in the several battle zones, and now Manager Bredhoff offers to his patrons "the German side of the war" in some of the most wonderful pictures ever brought from Europe. These views are said to have the personal approval of Kaiser Wilhelm and are reputed to be thrilling and highly educational.

"Three Weeks" attracted another large audience last night at the Popular and seems to be increasing in popularity with the decline of its engagement. For splendid acting and gorgeous staging "Three Weeks" is one of the best photo-plays ever seen in Honolulu. Miss Traverse, who takes the part of the queen in Elmer Glyn's widely-read novel, and Mahlon Hamilton, who plays the part of Paul, are finished actors of the modern American school and handle their parts excellently. Miss Traverse is a beautiful woman. She dresses elegantly and many women are attending the performances to study her exquisite gowns and admire the grace and dignity with which Miss Traverse carries herself in them.

"Three Weeks" will continue to run at the Popular until Saturday night inclusive, with a matinee daily.

BESSIE BARRISCALE A BIG SUCCESS

Bessie Barriscale scored a decided hit at Ye Liberty theater last night in "The Rose of the Rancho," that splendid drama by David Belasco and Richard Walton Tully. Supporting Miss Barriscale is a cast of superior ability while the production is one that is well above the average for the reason that Belasco and Jesse L. Lasky collaborated on its production. Each of these producers is on the highest pinnacle in the world of silent drama and their combined efforts give a finished article that leaves little to be desired.

The story is laid in the early days in California when a concerted effort was being made to induce the Spanish grandees to register their property holdings with the U. S. government and when the despised "Gringo" was the most hated of any time in the settlement of the Pacific coast. A charming little love story is entwined around the historical data set forth in "The Rose of the Rancho."

'CABIRIA' AT BIJOU ON SATURDAY

Gabriele d'Annunzio's "Cabiria," said to be a world's masterpiece in the silent drama, will open a limited engagement at the Bijou theater commencing Saturday evening. This mammoth picture, it contains 12 large reels and provides a full evening's entertainment—comes to Honolulu direct from a long run in Los Angeles and San Francisco and is today more in demand than any other picture being exhibited. As a consequence "Cabiria" must be quickly returned.

During the engagement of this picture at the Bijou theater there will be matinees given at Ye Liberty theater on Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday, commencing at 2 o'clock sharp. Special music, prepared exclusively for "Cabiria," will be rendered by an augmented orchestra at both matinee and evening performances.

While it has been customary on the mainland to show "Cabiria" at prices ranging as high as two dollars for the best seats, the Consolidated Amusement Company has decided not to charge in excess of 50 cents for the best seats during the local run. The price range down to 15 cents for the gallery accommodations.

Three hours are consumed in the telling in tinted pictures of the history of the struggle for supremacy of the empires of Rome and Carthage. The scenes are laid three hundred years before Christ and every effort has been made by the producer, the Italia Film Co. of Torino, to give to the offering a dressing commensurate with the epoch represented.

Requests have been coming into the Bijou box office for the past week for reservations for this offering and it is apparent that the S. R. O. sign will be in evidence during the engagement.

BEVANI OPERA STARS TO END SEASON TONIGHT

"Barber of Seville" Will Be Closing Bill of Local Engagement

With regret the music-lovers of the city tonight will bid "aloha" to the Bevani Grand Opera Company.

The Bevani artists have won sincere liking and respect during their engagement here. Though it has been far from a financial success, it has been musically well worth while to all except those who have money or a livelihood in the company. The singers have put on very good opera here at popular prices and except for a combination of untoward circumstances, undoubtedly would have drawn good audiences throughout the season.

Last night excerpts from the operas were presented to a house that should have been far larger. Many favorites were applauded by those who attended.

The farewell performance of the Bevani stars will probably prove one of the most interesting and entertaining of any of their repertoire. "The Barber of Seville," undoubtedly the best comedy-opera they have essayed during their local season, will be the closing bill, and tonight the closing performance.

Special rehearsals have been held for the last several days, especially with the orchestra, and Conductor Rocci is well pleased with results, predicting a performance that will be the equal of any given by this organization in this city.

The cast for tonight includes:
Rosina Mme. Sanborn
Count Almaviva Sr. Cavatore
Figaro Sr. Giovachini
Dr. Bartolo Sr. Bonziglia
Don Basilio Sr. Puccini
Marcelline Mme. Drady
Favvello Sr. Messini
A Notary Sr. Michele

HEROES IN THE TRENCHES.

PARIS, May 13.—These men in the trenches must keep incessant vigilance against sudden attacks by the enemy. The men who serve the artillery fire day and night oftentimes at an enemy that is never seen.

Medical science will save more lives this year than war will take, no matter how terrifically murderous that war may be. Then, too, the food supply is very carefully looked after by the commissariat. The food supply of the soldiers must be wholesome. Living in the open air, the men are able to digest hard-baked with great relish.

Napoleon said, "An army fights on its stomach." A man with a weak stomach is pretty sure to be a poor fighter. It is difficult—almost impossible—for anyone, man or woman, if digestion is poor, to succeed in business or socially—or to enjoy life. In tablet or liquid form Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery helps weak stomachs to strong, healthy action—helps them to digest the food that makes the good, rich red blood which nourishes the entire body.

This vegetable remedy, to a great extent, puts the liver into activity—the machinery of the human system so that those who spend their working hours at the desk, behind the counter, or in the home are rejuvenated into vigorous health.

It has brought relief to many thousands every year for nearly fifty years. It can relieve you and doubtless restore your former health and strength. At least you owe it to yourself to give it a trial. Sold by medicine dealers or send 50 cents for box of tablets—Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

You can have Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser of 1108 pages in clothing binding, fully illustrated with colored plates, for 3 dimes or 30 cents. Read all about yourself, your system the physiology of life, sex problems, marriage relations, anatomy, hygiene, exercise, disease and its prevention, simple home cures, etc.—Adv.

The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. held its regular monthly meeting at 12:30 today.

If I Had Eczema

I'd simply wash it away with that soothing liquid, D.D.D. Prescription. The very first drops instantly stop that awful itch. A 50 cent bottle will prove it.

We cannot absolutely guarantee a cure every time but we do say this. If the first regular size $1.00 bottle does not do exactly as we say it will not cost you a cent. Better try a bottle at once on your personal guarantee.
